\u0420\u044b\u0431\u043a\u0430!!!. It's a fun little neat game. Everything that was advertised: goofy, over-the-top, gory slow motion fun. Although I would wait for sales, as I would judge the game is worth anywhere from $5-$10.. Good game, good length, if you like this genre then worth a purchase. Tricky to find all the hidden items but gave a reason to go back and complete a level for gold status.. Nice tool to annoy your friends.

Essential to enjoy SCP:SL and comparably stale games for a long time. Spices up any Multiplayer game with a Voice Chat function.. Great dungeon crawler

+A lot of skills to learn and upgrade

+/- Dungeons are too big

-Change the job requires 1 Job Point (earned every 10 levels)

7,5/10. As dead as a door nail!

Has been abandoned by dev.

I enjoyed it; but if you buy it your money will be as dead as this is.

Overall Rating: ★★★★☆

This game is a first person shooter.

I'll admit it, I'm biased when it comes to these kinds of games. These are the games that got me into PC gaming when I was itty bitty. It's difficult to find a genuine old time first person shooter that I am not particularly fond of.

Done by Apogee, which had a number of incredibly fun titles during it's time, this is essentially Wolfenstein 3D in space. The variation in weapons, enemies, and even mechanics makes this game a step forward in the FPS genre. Able to purchase items from vending machines with money that you pick up, instead of it only contributing to your score. It retains all the other fun secret passages, card keys, and everything else that made the FPS golden era what it was.. This is a short game, but even so, the missions are very repetitive. Even worse, the missions aren't challenging in the least. Since the troops are weak and the whole village thing has a cap for every building type, you just end up spamming your god powers until the AI is beaten into submission. With the limited amount of powers, it get very old very fast.. good game BUT... I spent around $20 on google, would be nice if we could link the account.. I think this game is pretty fun to play, even if some parts of it need to be touched up. Graphics are fairly sharp, and I haven't experienced any major performance issues running this game on my lower-end machine. The gameplay does mostly as advertised and requires you to be efficient in production and sales. There are a few random events thrown at you shown through news reports which will affect your production line, applying for new loans, or interest rates on existing loans. The market is a neat mechanic where you can see the impacts of competition when making similar products to your rivals. All in all, for me, the pros outweigh the cons. I think the user interface could use some work to be a little more accessible and intuitive, and some new features could also be introduced. The market and economy system should demonstrate price elasticity in different products a little better. And the AI could be more challenging or at least given a head start in the industry to make the game more challenging. But even as it is, I'm going to keep playing because it's pretty fun starting up new companies and building them up to be veritable industry titans.

. Good top down shooter roguelite with permanent character progression.

Quite easy on normal mode, but hard mode definitely cranks things up.

There are unlockable characters, there's one that has crappy health like the poop from isaac if you want an extra challenge.

Well worth the 4 quid. Started out as a phone game but you'd never know.

60fps, good m/v/kb controls.. I really really like the game, but it does have glitches. The game crashed on me 3 times. You really have to remember to save every few mins.. only cost .99 cents. Paid less than £2 for this tripe, and still feel shafted. I seem to remember a time when the Jane's prefix meant brilliant simulator, yet this plays pretty much like afterburner with a lick of paint, and is to flightsims like a glass of water to the oceans.. I thought the memes were pretty cheeky, it was a decent little animation and it's free so give it a go.

I give it 6 Toupees out of 8, GG developer :^)
